How to access ePortfolio

The RCPI ePortfolio can be accessed via your RCPI Dashboard. To access this page you log in to the RCPI website and select RCPI ePortfolio on the right hand side of your dashboard. This will bring you directly into your ePortfolio.

The screenshot shows the RCPI website dashboard. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the RCPI logo and name, and links for Logout, Contact Us, Feedback, and Help. Below this is a search bar and a welcome message for 'BRIAN COSTELLOE'. A main navigation menu includes links for HOME, FACULTIES & INSTITUTES, POSTGRADUATE TRAINING, COURSES & EVENTS, EXAMINATIONS, PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE, IMPROVING PATIENT CARE, NEWS & RESOURCES, and ABOUT US. The dashboard content is divided into several sections: 'Account' (update contact details, view payment history, change password), 'Enrolments' (view current and previous enrolments), and 'Notifications' (pay fees, check messages). A section titled 'Upcoming events, courses & other items you might be interested in' features a table with filters for 'Of interest to', 'Related to', 'Type', 'Where', and 'By Month'. The table lists three events: a Trainee Workshop on Dec 16, a Clinical Update on Jan 20, and a Building Resilience workshop on Jan 23. On the right side, there is a vertical menu with buttons for 'RCPI ePortfolio' (highlighted with a blue circle), '@physicians', 'RCPI Committees', 'RCPI HST Recruitment', 'Member Directory', and 'RCPI Player'. Below this is a 'My Resources' section with links to 'Courses and events at RCPI 2014/15' and 'St Lukes Symposium brochure 2014'.

Date	Details	Action
DEC 16	Trainee Workshop - Health & Meditation: Healing From the Centre Courses Dublin, Ireland	Book Online Closes 15 Dec 2014
JAN 20	Clinical Update: Vaccination Courses RCPI, Ireland	Book Online Closes 20 Jan 2015

How to add a training post

This section does not apply to HST trainees. If you are enrolled in HST and have any queries relating to your training posts please contact Medical Training directly (hst@rcpi.ie).

Trainees in BST will not have access to their logbook until a post is added.

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Profile. From the dropdown list that appears, select Post /Trainer Details.

Step 2: If you have previously added posts they should appear in a table.

Step 3: To add a new post click

Step 4: There are three different sections where you need to enter post details: Details, Specialties and Trainers.

Step 1: Details

Step 2: Specialties

Step 3: Trainers

Step 5: Enter the relevant details in step 1 and click Next.

Note: Training period year refers to your year of training and should be a number between 1 and 8

Note: Your post number is available from Medical Administration and should be in the format GPT/GIM/SHO/CUH/0702.

Step 6: In Step 2 select a specialty from the list and click the arrow to add the specialty.

Note: This specialty should relate to your post.

Note: Additional specialties can be added as outlined above. Specialties can be removed by selecting the incorrect specialty and clicking the arrows directing to the left.

Note: If a specialty is not available in the dropdown list it can be entered into the field called Specialty Other.

Step 7: When all specialties have been selected click Next.

Step 8: Search for trainers by entering the trainer's surname in the name field. You can broaden the search by changing the location to 'RCPI' at the top of the Location drop-down menu; this will search all of the RCPI locations.

Name:

Role:

Location:

RCPI

- AMNCH, Tallaght Hospital (inc. National Chil
- Bantry General Hospital
- Beaumont Hospital

Once you have entered the relevant information, click Search. Select the relevant trainer from the results list and click the arrow to add the trainer.

Note: Trainers can be removed by selecting the incorrect trainer and clicking the arrows directing to the left.

Note: If you can't find your trainer after searching under location 'RCPI', you can contact hospitalinspections@rcpi.ie to register your trainer with RCPI.

Step 9: When you have made the necessary changes click Finish.

How to delete a post

This section does not apply to HST trainees. If you are enrolled in HST and have any queries relating to your training posts please contact Medical Training directly (hst@rcpi.ie).

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Profile. From the dropdown list that appears select Post/Trainer Details.

Step 2: Your posts should appear in a table.

Step 3: Under the Action section of the table there is an option to Edit/ Move/ Delete a post.

Step 4: Click Delete.

Your post has now been deleted and will no longer appear on the Post/Trainer details table.

Note: It is not possible to delete a post with forms associated with it. If you have already created records in your logbook associated with this post you will receive a warning message confirming this. If you still wish to proceed with deleting the post it may be possible to move these forms to another post. Please contact your RCPI programme coordinator if you want to move forms between posts.

How to create a record in my logbook

Definition of a record

A logbook contains multiple sections. Each section contains multiple forms. A record is an entry in a form.

Step 1: On the menu bar, click on Logbook. From the dropdown list that appears select the relevant section.

Step 2: Click Create beside the form to which you wish to add a record.

Step 3: Complete the relevant fields.

Step 4: Click Save.

Note: On submission a confirmation message will appear to confirm your record has been successfully created.

Step 5: (Optional) You are then given the option to Link with a file in the Personal Library or Add a Comment.

Note: Linking to a file in your personal library is a way of providing further evidence for a specific record in your logbook. You have the option to do this each time you make an entry in your logbook.

Note: See How to link a record with a file in my personal library for further information.

Step 6: To return to your logbook, Click Continue.

Note: The number of submissions for that form should have increased by 1.

How to complete a standard workplace-based assessment form

Notes on workplace-based assessments (WBAs)

A record of all WBAs should be kept in the ePortfolio. Although the assessment is undertaken by the trainer, the electronic record should be initiated by the trainee and then signed-off by the trainer.

As the actual assessment may take place in a clinical setting without access to a computer, a paper version of the form may be used by the assessor to record the assessment. See How to print a paper version of a workplace-based assessment.

The trainee should retain the paper version of the assessment and use it to update their ePortfolio as per these following steps.

A WBA may also be completed by someone who is not your assigned trainer. Please see How to send a ticket to an alternative supervisor for a workplace-based assessment

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Logbook. From the dropdown list that appears select Section 4 – Assessments.

Step 2: Review the list of workplace-based assessments on this page and click Create beside the form you wish to complete.

Step 3: Read the instructions carefully before you begin filling out the form.

Step 4: Select the Date of assessment for the date the assessment took place.

Step 5: Under Location of Assessment, type in the place where the assessment took place.

Step 6: Fill in the remaining details about the assessment as per the paper record of the event.

Step 7: Complete the rest of the form including ticking the appropriate ratings as per your trainer's assessment of your competence.

Step 8: When you have completed the form, click Save.

Step 9: (Optional) You are then given the option to Link with a file in the Personal Library or Add a Comment.

Note: Linking to a file in your personal library is a way of providing further evidence for a specific record in your logbook. You have the option to do this each time you make an entry in your logbook.

Note: See How to link a record with a file in my personal library for further information.

Step 12: Click Continue to return to Section 4 – Assessments.

Continue

Step 13: The number of submissions for that form should have increased by 1.

How to view and interpret your Progress Report

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Progress. From the dropdown list that appears select Progress Report.

Step 2: To change between your training programmes, click on the drop-down on the left at the top of the page and select a programme.

Step 3: To change between years of training within that programme, click on the drop-down on the right at the top of the page and select a year.

Interpreting your Progress Report

Sections : The Progress Report is divided between Training Post, Training Year and Training Programme requirements

Requirements: Where an item on the progress report is in italics it is 'desirable' and is not a mandatory part of the programmes core requirements. For example, Personal Goals Review below is in italics in this instance and is therefore not a minimum requirement for this particular programme.

F045 Sample Weekly Timetable		1 / 1	View Records
F052 Personal Goals Plan		2 / 1	View Records
F137 Personal Goals Review		1 / 1	View Records

Progress Bar: The progress bar displays your progress against the curricular requirements for your training programme.

The number of items completed/required is displayed to the right of the Progress Bar. For example, Personal Goals Plan above has completed/required at 2/1. This indicates that two Personal Goals Plan forms have been completed and one is the minimum requirement.

A blue bar indicates the form has been completed, but not signed. The green bar indicates that the requirement has been completed and signed.

Examples:

Completed minimum requirements and signed:

Completed beyond minimum requirements and signed:

Completed the minimum requirement, but the form has not been signed:

Completed part of the minimum requirement, with no forms signed:

Completed part of the minimum requirements, with two forms signed and two unsigned:

No form has been completed against the requirement:

Alerts: The Alert Icon indicates that the entries against the Progress Report item have not met the minimum requirements for Training Post and Training Year requirements

Note: Where the Alert Icon appears next to non-mandatory items (items in italics) it may be ignored.

How to print a paper version of a workplace-based assessment form

You may be required to print a paper version of the workplace-based assessment form to facilitate completing it in a clinical setting where you do not have access to the ePortfolio.

Step 1: On the menu bar, click on Logbook. From the list that appears click on Administrative Forms.

Step 2: On the list of options, click on Assessment Forms.

Step 3: Scroll through the information in this section until you find the workplace-based assessment form you are looking for.

Step 4: To open the document, click on the Read icon beside the document name.

Note: The form will be available as a PDF so you will require Adobe Reader to access it.

Step 5: To print the form, right click on the mouse and select Print from the menu that appears.

How to send an invitation to my trainer to review and sign-off my logbook

Your trainer should review your logbook and sign-off on your records every quarter. Use the steps in this guide to send an email from your ePortfolio to your trainer inviting them to review your logbook.

Please note that your trainer can review your logbook at any stage but should wait to be prompted by you to sign-off on your records.

For further details please see the 'When to update your ePortfolio' document in the Information section in the ePortfolio.

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Progress. From the dropdown list that appears select Logbook Review Requests.

Step 2: To send an invitation to your trainer click Request Review.

Create new Logbook Review Requests...

Step 3: Select the post you would like reviewed by the given trainer:

1. Select the post / trainer you wish to request reviews for your Logbook:

Select	Post	Specialty	Trainer Name
<input checked="" type="radio"/>	SHO - AMNCH, Tallaght Hospital (inc. National Children's Hospital) (01 Jan 2014 to 07 Jul 2014)	BST Paediatrics	Dr. Firstname LastName

Step 4: Type a personal note to your trainer in the text box provided:

2. Provide a message you wish to accompany your Logbook Review Request (optional):

Dear Dr Firstname LastName
Please review my logbook entries for this post.
Kind regards

Step 5: Click Send Logbook Review Request.

Send Logbook Review Request

An email will then be sent to your trainer asking them to log in and review your logbook. Your name will also appear on your trainer's homepage so they can easily access your logbook.

Your request will now appear as Pending on your list of logbook review requests. Once your trainer has signed off at least one item in your logbook for this post, the request will change to Complete.

You will receive an email once your trainer has signed off at least one item from the requested post. It is possible that your trainer will not sign all the items you have entered and you should review your logbook after your request has changed to Complete to check to see if there are any items which remain unsigned.

Note: The invitation is a request to review your 'live' ePortfolio; it is not a 'snap-shot' view. It is important to realise that any records you add after the date of invitation and before the date that your trainer reviews your logbook will also be available to your trainer for sign-off.

How to change your programme to access a different logbook – dual specialty training programmes

The forms you see in your logbook are determined by your Programme. Logbooks for each programme are stored separately in the system. You can use this process to access a logbook from a previous training programme or, as a dual specialty trainee, to access the logbook for your second specialty.

Step 1: On the menu bar click on Logbook to choose the desired logbook section or Progress to view your Progress Report.

How to upload a file to my personal library

When uploading files to your personal library it may be useful to create folders to organise these files. You can move files between folders by 'dragging and dropping' them.

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Profile. From the dropdown list that appears select Personal Library.

Step 2: To create a folder to upload your file to, click on Create new folder

Create new folder

Enter the name you want for your new folder.

Folder name:

Click Save

Step 3: Click on the blue file icon.

The folder will now appear underneath Library in the left-hand side of the box.

Note: If you wish to create a sub-folder inside your new folder, you can click on the new folder instead of Library.

Step 4: To upload a file directly to the Library, click on the Upload a file to your library icon.

Upload a file to your library

Click Select and browse to find the file you wish to upload.

File to upload:

Select

File to upload.docx

Step 5: Type a description of the file in the Description text box.

Step 6: Click whether the file should be Shared or Private.

File status Private Shared

Note: In order for your Supervisor to see an entry it must be Shared. If you wish it to be kept private choose Private.

Step 7: Click Save.

Save

Step 8: The file should now appear on the left of the box.

How to link a record with a file in my personal library

Linking with a file in your personal library is a way of providing further evidence for a specific record in your logbook. You have the option to do this each time you make an entry in your logbook or reflective logs. The example used in this guide is linking to a form in your logbook.

You can link with a file at the same time as creating the record OR you can return to link the file at a later date. This guide explains how to link using both of these methods.

It is important to remember that you can only link files that are marked as 'Shared'.

Step 1: On the menu bar, click Logbook. From the dropdown list that appears select the relevant section.

Note: You can create a link to any reflective log or form in your logbook (excluding workplace-based assessments).

Step 2: Complete a form in this section using the instructions in How to create a record in my logbook. After you have completed your reflective log or Form a Links section will be available.

Step 3: Click File in The Personal Library link

Step 4: Expand the library and click on the blue folder icon.

Step 5: Click on Actions and + Add Link

Step 6: The linked documents will appear in a table at the top of the page. You can view the link you have made by clicking on the spy glass.

Existing Links For: F052 Personal Goals Plan (02/12/2014 14:43:44) View

Notes: For details on how to view this link from your logbook at a later date please see Step 11.

Step 7: (Optional) If the file you wish to link is not yet in your personal library you can upload it by clicking Upload a file to your library.

Upload a file to your library

Note: For instructions on how to upload a file please see How to upload a file to my personal library

Step 8: (Optional) You can also create a link to a form at a later stage (after it has been created). To navigate to the form click Progress on the menu bar. From the dropdown list that appears select Summary Overview.

Step 9 Under the Submissions column click on the number of forms you have created.

Step 10: From the table that appears click the edit symbol to the right of the form that you wish to add a link to.

Note: Any links you have previously created will appear here. You can return to view previously linked documents at any stage using this page.

Step 12: You now have the option to add a new link by clicking on File In The Personal Library

Step 13: From this point refer back to Step 4 of this guide to complete the process.
