Kirkpatrick, Thomas Percy Claude, 1869-1954

Description:
This collection contains visual materials in a number of formats collected by the College overtime, the collections includes prints, drawings and photographs which originally formed part of the Kirkpatrick Bequest.

The majority of the material in the collection is of medical subjects or individuals generally with an Irish slant, however there are some items particularly in the prints, and photographs section which relate to Irish history and literature.

Arrangement:
The material has been divided into three sections by type; Prints and Photographs, Glass Lantern Slides; and Glass Plate Negatives. Within each section further divisions have been made as necessary.

Custodial History:
This material has been collected by the College over time, with no real over-arching collection aim or policy, resulting in the range of media and subjects. Over time parts of the Kirkpatrick collection have become mixed into the College's general collection of visual materials, see TPCK/5/3/8 for more details.

Individual Portraits

Extent:
10 boxes

Creator:
Royal College of Physicians of Ireland

Description:
This section contains a collection of prints and photographs of individuals, collected by the College and by Dr Kirkpatrick. Those images belonging to Kirkpatrick were donated to the College with the rest of his library and archive collection following his death, but since that time they have become mixed in with the College's own collection. There is an index in the Kirkpatrick archive to his engraving and photographic collection which can be used to identify many of the items in this section as part of that collection, it also shows that not all of Kirkpatrick's collection of engravings and photographs came to the College.

The subject of the prints and photographs are mainly Irish medical men, but there are also images of foreign medical men as well as other historical and literary figures, mainly of Irish interest.

Arrangement:
Images have been arranged alphabetically by surname, there is also a collection of unidentified photographs and engravings at the end of the collection.
